

Map of State LTC Partnership Reciprocity:

The Federal Deficit Reduction Act of 2005 allows states to have a partnership program to provide asset protection for those who buy partnership qualified long term care insurance policies.

State Reciprocity

With state reciprocity not only does your insurance move with you if you move to a different state than where you bought your LTC insurance but your asset protections also moves with you.

